

Advent 2016

We continue on Our Advent Journey and this week we give special attention to Our Blessed Mother. On Thursday December 8 the church celebrates the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception at 8:15AM and 7PM. This is a Holy Day of Obligation and this teaching about Mary being immaculately conceived so she could be the Mother of God was formulated, promoted, and defended by the Franciscans.

From the Pastor

Who Is Mary?

Mary is the greatest gift that God has made to mankind. She is the Mother of God: “the masterpiece of the Creator, the clear reflection of God, a miracle of nature and grace, beauty beyond speech, the most splendid dawn, the crown of the Saints, the sanctuary of the mystical heights, the minister of triumph, the All-Holy... It is she to whom the unique prodigy of being Immaculate, most perfect, and most pure belongs...” (Pope Paul VI). Mary has been, is, and will ever be the best known and most loved Woman of all humanity.

Is it necessary to know Our Lady?

Our Lady occupies a place of prominence not only in the history of the salvation of the human race, but also in the spiritual life of every Christian. As a result it is useful, or rather proper and necessary, to know profoundly her sublime mission, her grand privileges and the mystery of her life. Knowledge of Mary is helpful for knowing Jesus better. The more one knows Our Lady, the better one can comprehend and love Jesus.

The Immaculate

The first privilege that Our Lady received from God in view of her divine Maternity was to be conceived “Immaculate”. While all are born with original sin, that is to say without sanctifying grace, Our Lady was the only human creature to receive from God a soul filled with grace from the very first moment of her life. She was the first flower to bud forth on the earth without being poisoned and stained by the sin of Adam.

In her presence the Devil will always be constrained to take flight.

How can one give proof of the privilege of the Immaculate Conception from Sacred Scripture?

One can give proof of the privilege of the Immaculate Conception from the words of God to the Devil after the original sin: “I will put enmity between thee and the Woman, and thy seed and her Seed; she shall crush thy head, and thou shalt lie in wait for thy heel”(Gn. 3,15).

The enmity between the Devil (the serpent) and Mary (the Woman) that God announces will be complete and endure forever. If Our Lady had been subject to the Devil even for just an instant, the enmity would not have been complete. Thus Our Lady was never a slave of Satan, that is to say that her soul, by a singular privilege of God, was never tainted by original sin.

What other text of the Sacred Scripture proves the privilege of the Immaculate Conception?

Another proof of the privilege of the Immaculate Conception can be found in the words with which the Angel Gabriel saluted the Blessed Virgin Mary: “Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee”(Lk. 1,28).

The Archangel’s greeting makes us understand Mary’s sublime holiness. St. Gabriel did not call Mary by her name, but called her “full of grace”. These words show that Our Lady had been and remained a friend of God and full of every grace. One defect, even a slight one, would have been enough to hinder the Angel from calling her “full of grace”. Hence Mary was always Immaculate, without a shadow of original sin.

GOSPEL FOR THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT (December 11TH)MATTHEW 11:2-11

When John the Baptist heard in prison of the works of the Christ, he sent his disciples to Jesus with this question, “Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?” Jesus said to them in reply, “Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them. And blessed is the one who takes no offense at me.” As they were going off, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John, “What did you go out to the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind? Then what did you go out to see? Someone dressed in fine clothing? Those who wear fine clothing are in royal palaces. Then why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way before you. Amen, I say to you, among those born of women there has been none greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.”
