

Happy Easter to You and Your Loved Ones

From the Pastor As we celebrate the liturgical remembrance of our salvation, Easter, freely given by the eternal sacrifice of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, it is fitting that I conclude the Lenten Lecture Series with the sixth and final covenant - the Eternal Covenant of Jesus Christ, Lord and Savior. Throughout the six weeks, it was encouraging to see such a great turnout of parishioners and others from the Diocese of Oakland who want to deepen their understanding of God's love contained in the history of salvation. More importantly, it fosters a deeper love and relationship with God. This is the final synopsis of the covenants for those who do not attend our adult catechesis lectures. Again, please realize that what's provided below is only a cursory understanding of the final and eternal Covenant of Jesus Christ, Lord and Savior, and the importance of God's unconditional love for all people.

Eternal Covenant of Jesus Christ, Lord and Savior

We have discovered over the past six weeks God's love for his people contained in the six covenants God made with his people as found in Sacred Scripture. I have shared scriptural insights and well as Catholic tradition in opening the history of salvation, God's plan for his people. We've learned that five of the covenants God made with the nation of Israel. Five are unconditional in design, that is, regardless of Israel's obedience or disobedience, God still fulfilled these covenants with the nation of Israel. One of the covenants is conditional in nature. It is this covenant that brought either blessings or curses depending upon Israel's obedience or disobedience. The final and eternal covenant is made and ratified in the blood of God's only begotten son, Jesus Christ, opening the Kingdom of God to the faithful.

Catechism of the Catholic Church, §763

It was the Son's task to accomplish the Father's plan of salvation in the fullness of time. Its accomplishment was the reason for his being sent. "The Lord Jesus inaugurated his Church by preaching the Good News, that is, the coming of the Reign of God, promised over the ages in the scriptures." To fulfill the Father's will, Christ ushered in the Kingdom of heaven on earth. The Church "is the Reign of Christ already present in mystery."

The 12 Characteristics of the Davidic Kingdom Fulfilled by Jesus Christ, Son of God

We need to reexamine the characteristics of the Davidic Kingdom in the Old Testament. Since the New Covenant is a renewal and extension of the Davidic Covenant, we find these characteristics fulfilled by Jesus, Mary, Peter, and the Church in the New Testament. The Catholic Church is the Davidic Kingdom redeemed, restored, and transformed. It primarily resides in heaven with the Church Triumphant centered upon her king: Jesus the Anointed One (Messiah/Christ). The Church on earth or "the Church Militant" is the Kingdom in transit. She is in a pilgrim state as her members are purified and as they shed their sin by the means of transforming grace.

The 12 Characteristics of the Davidic Kingdom:

1. A Monarchy governed by its representative head: the King Jesus is our King, and the Church is a monarchy, not a democracy.
2. The Davidic Covenant is made with David's seed (Hebrew: zera'h). This is fulfilled in Jesus who is a direct descendant of David.
3. The King is anointed by a Levite, making him Messiah or Christ; Jesus is anointed by the Holy Spirit when baptized by John the Baptist, a Levite.
4. The Son of David is the Son of God. Jesus bears both of these titles throughout the Gospel narratives.
5. Jerusalem is the capital city with its own center located at Mount Zion. The Redemption begins in the Upper Room on Mount Zion; the Church is the New Jerusalem.
6. The Temple is the architectural symbol of the Davidic Covenant. Jesus and his Mystical Body (the Church) are the New Temple.
7. It is worldwide in scope, incorporating other nations. "Catholic" means "universal" and is composed of every nationality.
8. It is everlasting in duration, according to God's promises. It continues in the Church, which is the Kingdom restored: a Kingdom without end.
9. Its Law is found in the Wisdom Literature of the Old Testament. The Psalms play a central role in Catholic worship
10. The King's personal representative was the Majordomo or Prime Minister. Jesus establishes this office by giving Peter "the keys of the kingdom."
11. The King's own mother reigned as Queen. Jesus' mother, Mary, was assumed into heaven where she reigns as Queen Mother
12. Principal sacrifice is the Todah or "Thanksgiving" sacrifice in the Temple The Eucharist (which means "Thanksgiving") fulfills this sacrificial offering.

May our loving Lord shower you and your loved ones during this holiest of seasons, Easter.

In Christ Jesus and St. Augustine,

ST. IGNATIUS' PRAYER FOR GENEROSITY

Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight and not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labor and not to ask for reward,
save that of knowing that I do your will.
~AMEN

Gospel for Divine Mercy Sunday (APRIL 27th)
John 20:19--31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.
