

Join the Friars in asking St. Anthony for help

Today St. Anthony is truly a universal saint, respected and venerated even by non Christians. He is was especially known as the patron of the lost, for all through out his life he restored things back to people who had lost them: for some it was health for others their hope, and for many their faith. Today, as in the 13th century , we call out, St. Anthony, pray for us!

Youth Pilgrimage August 2nd. We need you! Help us pass the faith to our youth. The Pilgrimage is a one day experience to hear the truth of our rich tradition of faith in California. We need the intercession of the Saints to help us embrace and live the faith in a world that is cynical and violent. May we share the truth of our Saints who brought hope by offering sacrificial love for others? Friar Junipero Serra was canonized a Saint last year. He is buried at the Mission in Carmel. St. Junipero Serra built many of the Missions in California but more importantly preached the Gospel and brought the faith to the native people of California who freely embraced the Gospel and were baptized. St. Junipero Serra walked from Serra walked from here all the way to Mexico City to plead the cause of the native people who were being abused by the Spanish. He was buried at the mission because he wanted to be with his people he had brought to the faith. Contact Robyn Lang if you can help.(510) 582-9266

Individuals signed up for ways they thought they could best help. Gospel for 11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
(June 12th) Luke 7:36-8.3

A Pharisee invited Jesus to dine with him, and he entered the Pharisee's house and reclined at table. Now there was a sinful woman in the city who learned that he was at table in the house of the Pharisee. Bringing an alabaster flask of ointment, she stood behind him at his feet weeping and began to bathe his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them, and anointed them with the ointment. When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him, that she is a sinner." Jesus said to him in reply, "Simon, I have something to say to you." "Tell me, teacher," he said. "Two people were in debt to a certain creditor; one owed five hundred days' wages and the other owed fifty. Since they were unable to repay the debt, he forgave it for both. Which of them will love him more?" Simon said in reply, "The one, I suppose, whose larger debt was forgiven." He said to him, "You have judged rightly."

Then he turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? When I entered your house, you did not give me water for my feet, but she has bathed them with her tears and wiped them with her hair. You did not give me a kiss, but she has not ceased kissing my feet since the time I entered. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she anointed my feet with ointment. So I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven because she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little." He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." The others at table said to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?" But he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

Afterward he journeyed from one town and village to another, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. Accompanying him were the Twelve and some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, Joanna, the wife of Herod's steward Chuza, Susanna, and many others who provided for them out of their resources.
