□□□□□□□□ A Vocation – To Be a Disciple of Jesus

From the Pastor Part 1 of a Series by Fr. Paul

Introduction

As you may know, I am the Vocation Director for our Order of the Conventual Franciscans. Fr. Tom asked me to write to you something about Vocations. As a Vocation Director for our Order, I talk to young men thinking about becoming a Franciscan. But to be a Franciscan is only one of many possible vocations. I would like to share some thoughts on what is our common vocation, and how we go about fulfilling it.

Our common vocation is to be a disciple of Jesus. A disciple is a word for student. I like to best think of a relationship between a master pianist and a child protégé. The student learns from the master, both by instruction and imitation. The student spends many hours in the presence of the master, until they themselves become a master. Is our relationship with Jesus, the Master, like this? The story of Martha and Mary in the Gospel of Luke (10:38-42) is another example of a vocation. Are we simply about many things in life like was Martha, without focusing on the one (few) things the Lord is asking of us?

We all have a vocation. We are all disciples of Jesus. We are to spend this life, not just doing what we need to do to survive, but doing what we are created to do; that is, to fulfill our purpose in God's plan. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, will direct us to that purpose if we seek his guidance. But this takes much time, and we must be a serious student, to learn what he wants to show us.

Believer vs. a Follower

In my life, as I look back, I see two distinct stages of my faith. I've always believed in God, because on the day of my first communion, God answered one of my prayers in such a powerful and miraculous way, that I have never since doubted God's existence. However, after that wonderful event, much of my life was spent living as I wanted, and asking God to answer my prayers to give me more of what I wanted. As I look back now, I realize I was asking God to serve me! But are we not called to serve God? To find our vocation, I like to say we must "Flip our Prayer", that is, instead of asking God to give us what we want, we need to ask God to tell us what He wants, so we can in effect answer His prayer!

Prayer is Essential to Hear Your Call

If we pray to ask God what he wants, we must learn to listen to the voice of God. This takes time, to learn the language of God! My best advice is to pray daily, by meditating on the Gospels. It is best to pray an hour a day, but many find that difficult. So, you can, to start, commit 10 minutes every day. Schedule the time and place, and put it in your calendar. Pick a Gospel passage (one short scene). Ask for the Holy Spirit to be with you, to help you pray, to help you hear God's voice, to allow you to truly encounter Jesus, the Master. Imagine the scene as you slowly read the passage. Put yourself in the scene, as one of the characters in the story. Engage your senses; hear the sounds, see the colors, smell the smells, feel the emotions and struggle with the tensions in the scene. As you do this, the scene will start to "Come alive". Feel free to go with it; that is allow it to unfold with more detail than is in the text. Allow it to take a different direction. Trust in the Holy Spirit. As Jesus called His disciples and taught them along "The way" for years; so too Jesus will lead and teach you through this prayer. Towards the end of my prayer time, it helps me to journal about what happened in my prayer. As I journal, I not only record what happened, but the process of writing additionally opens new insights into the passage and into my life. You might find this to be true for you too.

A regular prayer life, listening to Jesus, is essential to finding your vocation. The best books on prayer I think are by Thomas Green. The two I recommend are Opening to God and When the Well Runs Dry. In the next bulletin, I will share more on fulfilling your vocation. But I want to stop here to emphasize how important daily listening prayer is in finding your vocation. So, put your "prayer time" appointment for each day, on your calendar now, and be faithful to it!

Peace and All Good!

Fr. Paul

Gospel for the Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time (October 22nd)*Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

FROM ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

Militia Immaculata Celebrating 100 years!

100 years ago St. Maximilian Kolbe along with 6 other Franciscans began a prayer movement of Consecration to the Blessed Mother to evangelize the world and lead people through Mary and her mission of bearing Christ to the world to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In honor of this anniversary and the witness of the life and heroic death of St. Maximilian Kolbe we will use his reflections to help us enter into the mysteries of the Rosary. Our Reflection this week is the Luminous Mystery of The Institution of the Eucharist:

“The Sorrowful Mysteries

The Agony in the Garden -- Matthew 26:36-46

Let us trust in God, trust Him without limits. Let us be confident that, if we are concerned only with doing His will, no real harm will ever come to us, even if we were to live in times a thousandfold harsher than the ones we live in now. In all things let us not forget to repeat with Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane: “Not My will but Thine be done” (Luke 22:42). And if, as happened in the Gethsemane, God were to see fit not to grant our requests and send a cup to drink to the last drop, let us not forget that Jesus not only suffered, but then was also gloriously risen, and that we long for resurrection even through suffering. (KW 1264).”

CASTRO VALLEY HOMELESS OUTREACH

The OLG community is very blessed in many ways, and we have the opportunity to share God’s blessing with others. For the last several months we have provided food and supplies to the homeless in Castro Valley. There is a critical need to expand this ministry, and we need your help. Their needs are simple - food, canned or prepared - pretty much anything that can be cooked or reheated on a camp stove. Food is shared, so don’t worry about quantity, anything is greatly appreciated. Other key items include propane for camp stoves, AAA batteries, flashlights and batteries, black garbage bags (30 gallon), plastic flatware, tarps, and camping equipment of all kinds, PARTICULARLY with cold weather coming. We will arrange to pick-up your donation and deliver it to those in need. Please contact Ken White at k2rm@comcast.net at (510) 909-5774. or Sean Nalty at sean.nalty@ogletree.com at (415) 369-3552 . We are asking you to take a few minutes next weekend after Mass to stop at one of the tables set up near the entrances to the church to sign a letter or write your own letter to our Senators and Representatives asking them to support bills that will help the most vulnerable in our nation and around the world.

FLOWER REMEMBRANCE FUND

Flower donation envelopes can be found at the entrances of the church to make a donation in memory of or honor of a loved one or other occasion. If you have any questions, feel free to contact Jay at 537-0806. Your donation in honor of your loved one will be mentioned in the bulletin.
