

Mentored by the Master

 A Vocation – To Be a Disciple of Jesus

From the Pastor Part 2 of a Series by Fr. Paul
Introduction

As Jesus called, formed, and then sent his disciples, so too us. Through prayer, sacramental life and service, we are “Mentored by the Master”, and guided to our vocation. In last week’s article, I emphasized the importance of listening prayer as the first step of following Jesus. What are the next steps? Since I am the Franciscan Vocation director, I will offer the life of St. Francis as an example.

St. Francis’ Vocation

St. Francis was born in Assisi, over 800 years ago, into a family of a cloth merchant. This made Francis part of the upper middle-class. He was popular with the youth, and enjoyed a good party. He was also born at a very violent time, when war was common, and warriors were admired. Francis dreamed to be a soldier and a Knight. During a war with the neighboring town, Perugia, he witnessed many of his friends killed. He himself was taken prisoner and spent over a year as a Prisoner of War, and nearly a year longer at home recovering his health. It is believed that this time of crisis began a period of deep prayer, and the beginning of a time of questioning the values of his family, and the world into which he was born. However, after regaining his health, not knowing what God really planned for him, he continued his plan to become a Knight. On his way to serve in the Crusades, God began to speak to him in a series of dreams, indicating he was to be a Knight for God’s Kingdom, not man’s, and that he should return home. Not knowing for what God asked him to return home to do, and being less than well received by family and friends who thought he was a coward, Francis continued to pray regularly. One day in the little Church of San Damiano, the Crucifix spoke to him; “Francis Rebuild My House which you can see is falling into ruin.” Francis began to physically rebuild that church, and two others. As Francis continued to pray, and work, God revealed to him his selfish desires, and how he had espoused the values of the world, not God. Francis renounced wealth, and chose to be poor and dependent on God alone. He began to serve the poor and outcasts of his society (the lepers), those who were not seen as important in the world’s eyes. On the Feast of the Apostle Matthias, moved by the Gospel of Mt 10:7-19, Francis heard; “Go, preach, saying The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.... Take neither gold nor silver... nor shoes nor a staff.” Francis imitated what he heard, took a tunic (our habit) with a rope around his waist, and began to preach repentance and the Kingdom of God in the streets of Assisi. Soon others, impressed by his witness of Joy and total dedication to God, followed him. The Franciscan Order was born. St. Clare also followed, and the Poor Clares were formed. Then married and lay people followed, and the Secular Franciscans were born. Franciscans changed Europe, and the world. They rebuilt God’s home, the Church, which was falling into ruin at that time.

Our Vocation

Like St. Francis, our vocation must come from a life of prayer that leads us, step by step, in uncertainty and faith, to an end we never clearly see. Each step gives us new experiences to bring into prayer, and then the Spirit speaks to indicate what might be the next step. Our journey often begins with an event, or events, that cause us to question our world view, and invites us to see the world’s values from God’s point of view. Then, we must actively structure our life to reject what is contrary to God’s kingdom. (E.g. live simply, seeking to serve God rather than pursuing the world’s values.) This may cause those in the world to criticize us, or at least not understand us. Prayer guides one into action, but the actions we are called to take are usually only vaguely discerned. We act with uncertainty, in faith, and then prayerfully examine the results, and ask again, ‘What next Lord?’ The actions we take should be both within the church, such as volunteering in your parish community, and outside of the Church, such as directly serving the poor. Prayer and service together shape a person that is authentic, Christlike, and filled with Joy. Then, in God’s time, when God’s servant is sufficiently formed, God uses our specific gifts and talents, and the situations of our lives, to build up the Kingdom of God, by both word and deed. We become an Apostle, that is an Evangelist, in a way that is uniquely our own. God will offer us “Invitations” for new ways to serve. These invitations are usually subtle, requiring a listening and prayerful heart to hear. By first doing what was possible, following God’s voice the best we know how, we one day find ourselves doing what was impossible. We become Heralds of the King, like St. Francis, who at first built physical Churches, stone by stone, then on that foundation, God built His Church, the body of Christ.

As we build our foundation of prayer, sacrament, simplicity of life, service in church and world, God will gently lead us into deeper service, our vocation.

CASTRO VALLEY HOMELESS OUTREACH

We would like to thank those who volunteered for the Homeless Outreach this past weekend. You were very generous and the recipients of your kindness were incredibly appreciative. You indeed shared God's blessing with these people.

Their needs are simple - food, canned or prepared - pretty much anything that can be cooked or reheated on a camp stove. Food is shared, so don't worry about quantity, anything is greatly appreciated. Other key items include propane for camp stoves, flashlights and batteries, plastic flatware, and camping equipment of all kinds, particularly lanterns. In addition, PARTICULARLY with cold weather coming, pallets, plywood or OSB sheets - full (4x8) or half (4x4), and tarps. We will arrange to pick-up your donation and deliver it directly to the people, in our own community, who are in need.

Gospel for the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
(October 29th) Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

ROSARY MEDITATIONS FROM ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

Militia Immaculata Celebrating 100 years!

100 years ago St. Maximilian Kolbe along with 6 other Franciscans began a prayer movement of Consecration to the Blessed Mother to evangelize the world and lead people through Mary and her mission of bearing Christ to the world to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In honor of this anniversary and the witness of the life and heroic death of St. Maximilian Kolbe we will use his reflections to help us enter into the mysteries of the Rosary. Our Reflection this week is the Sorrowful Mystery of The Scourging at the Pillar:

“The Sorrowful Mysteries

The Scourging at the Pillar -- Matthew 27:26

When we encounter difficulties that we are unable to overcome, or are beleaguered by temptation, let us not lose heart, but always turn to Mary in full confidence, as children toward their mother. She will infuse us with the light and the strength we need, will hold us close to her heart and sweeten the most bitter sorrows. No place on earth will ever be completely free of crosses: if we had no crosses, we would not have the chance to gain heaven. Therefore, let us not try to avoid the cross too much, and if we need to take it on our shoulders, let us carry it willingly out of love for the Immaculata. (KW 751).”
