

This Advent: PSSS!

Advent is a time we “Prepare for the coming of Christ.” I wish to give some concrete suggestions for how to do that. But first I’d like to say a bit more about Advent.

Hasn’t Christ already come 2,000 years ago? Why then do we have a season where we prepare for the coming of Christ? In advent, the church speaks of the two comings of Christ. The first was a little over 2,000 years ago. The second will be at the end of time. Jesus tells us in the scripture, and our faith teaches, that Jesus will come in power at the end of time, to judge the living and the dead. In the second reading this Sunday from 2 Peter 3:8-14, we see that since with the Lord, one day is as a thousand years, the prophesized “Day of the Lord” is a period of many human days. It begins gently, with the first coming of Christ. A child, who grows up amongst us, shows us God’s love for us, dies for our sins, but rises, shares the Holy Spirit, ascends to heaven, and will then come back in the same way, to Judge the Nations on earth. God has designed it this way, so that more people will be saved! God’s plan of mercy is to delay the second coming so that more will be saved. This can only happen if we ourselves do not grow weary of waiting and become cold in our faith and service. So, in Advent, the Church encourages us to “Be Prepared” for the coming of Christ!

How do we do that? May I suggest that we PSSS! That is, that we Pray, receive the Sacraments, Study and Serve! This mnemonic helps me to remember how to structure my life with the essential elements needed to keep the flame of faith burning brightly. Each day we should spend at least 15 minutes in quiet prayer. (We should especially use Scripture in our prayer, and of all scripture, the Gospels have precedence.) We must regularly receive the sacraments; especially the Eucharist and Reconciliation. The sacraments are a receiving of divine grace, a power beyond us that fosters Christ living in us. We should also grow in our faith by study. The easiest way to do this is through spiritual reading. Have you ever read a Catechism for adults? There is an official Catechism of the Church, but it is intended more as a reference. Other Catechisms attempt to explain and develop the teachings of the official Catechism. Personally, I’ve found The Teaching of Christ: A Catholic Catechism for Adults, edited by Bishop Donald W. Wuerl, Ronald Lawler OFM Cap, and others to be very helpful. Finally, service is required. Without service, even our best efforts at prayer and study can be self-centered. We are created to give ourselves away in love for others. Giving and serving directly our brothers and sisters, especially the poorest, and those we might feel uncomfortable around, is essential to a healthy spirituality.

Now my most important and impassioned plea. For those who live in families, especially parents of young children, please do these things TOGETHER as a FAMILY! Take time to pray together. The Rosary is excellent for this. Go to Mass and Confession together. Studying together can be fun and easy by watching a religious movie and discussing it. There are also family study guides that help prepare for the coming Sunday readings at Mass. (Fr. Tom likes to recommend massimpact.us/live-it-gathering-family-edition/). And finally, and beautifully, volunteer together as a family at a local soup kitchen, food pantry, homeless shelter, or visit the sick or elderly at a nursing home. Additionally, each member of the family can throughout the year, gather up old clothes and toys and donate them to a charity. Each member of the family can even tithe, by save up and distribute money to the poor. This Advent, let us PSSS – Pray, receive the Sacraments, Study the faith, and Serve!

In my work as a vocation director, I talk to many young people about becoming a Religious Sister, Brother, or Priest. They wish to ‘someday’ find their vocation. But really, we all have the same vocation, and we don’t have to wait. It can start today! PSSS! Pray, receive the Sacraments, Study, and Serve. This way of life, will lead all of us to the unique way of life, and our unique way of serving God, that we call a vocation. Especially to our parents; you can make your home and family like a Religious Order! You are the Pastors of your “Home Church!” Your mission is forming disciples! All vocations to The Church, and the world, begin in the family. Your job is most sacred! Read more about finding your call (that is your vocation, or your mission in life) on my vocation office website: franciscan-discernment.org.

Peace and All Good, Fr. Paul.

ROSARY MEDITATIONS FROM ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

Militia Immaculata Celebrating 100 years!

100 years ago St. Maximilian Kolbe along with 6 other Franciscans began a prayer movement of Consecration to the Blessed Mother to evangelize the world and lead people through Mary and her mission of bearing Christ to the world to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In honor of this anniversary and the witness of the life and heroic death of St. Maximilian Kolbe we will use his reflections to help us enter into the mysteries of the Rosary. Our Reflection this week is The Glorious Mystery of The Assumption:

“The Glorious Mysteries

The Assumption--Isaiah 61:10

The Immaculata is the ultimate limit between God and creation. She is a faithful image of God’s perfection, of His sanctity.

One’s degree of perfection depends on the union of one’s will to the will of God. The greater the perfection, the closer the union. As the Blessed Mother, with her perfection, surpassed all the angels and saints, so also her will is united and identified most closely with the will of God. She lives and works solely in God and through God. Therefore, by fulfilling the will of the Immaculata we fulfill by that very reason the will of God. (KW1232)
