

	Jesus Gives us the Core of his Teaching The teaching of Jesus today about loving God and neighborhood is the root of all his ministry and life. As a child, Jesus would have prayed the Shema every day with Mary and Joseph at home. This teaching on God and neighbor should be in our mind and heart everyday. Love is the key! In the Torah, Moses gives The Shema to his people in his last words to them. In the book of Deuteronomy 6:4-9, God dictates that the Shema Israel be contained in the mezuzah that we affix to our doorposts. God also dictates that the Shema be worn close to the head and heart. The Shema Israel The Shema is recited aloud as follows: Shema Yisrael Adonai Eloheinu Adonai Echad. Hear, O Israel, the Eternal is our God, the Eternal is One. The V'ahavta The next verse following the Shema is called the V'ahavta. The English translation is: Blessed be God's Name and glorious kingdom forever and ever. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might. And these words, which I [God] teach you this day, shall be upon your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, speak of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down and when you rise up. And you shall bind them as a sign upon your hand, and they shall be for a reminder before your eyes. Prayer at the Tomb Last Sunday while we were at the tomb of Jesus and I prayed for our pilgrims, petitions, and the parish. It was by entering into the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus that reveals the depth of God's love for us. Jesus calls us to a deeper love. We can only offer Thanks for such a love and that is what Eucharist means. We do not deserve or could even imagine such a love and yet God offers himself completely. November is the month to remember our deceased It is during November that the Church meditates on the Communion of Saints, which is the charitable link with the faithful who have already reached heaven (Church Triumphant), the faithful departed who are still expiating their sins in Purgatory (Church Suffering) and of the pilgrim faithful here on earth (Church Militant). "In this wonderful exchange, the holiness of one profits others, well beyond the harm that the sin of one could cause others. Thus recourse to the communion of saints lets the contrite sinner be more promptly and efficaciously purified of the punishments for sin. (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1475). Join us on Wednesday as we have our Mass of Remembrance for those who were buried from our parish and for those who have had family members who died this last year. We pray for them that they may be at peace with the Lord. Join us at 7:00pm on November 7th. Peace, Fr. Tom

Gospel for the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (November 11th) In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds, "Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues, and places of honor at banquets. They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers. They will receive a very severe condemnation." He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."	Mark 12:38-44

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Communication is key to our school's success. Teachers/students/parents are the team that communicate with each other to be sure that best practices are being used at all grade levels. To understand this process better, we host parent conferences this month. By coming together to discuss goals, both immediate and for the future, our stakeholders are able to come away from a conference with a keener clarification of why Our Lady of Grace Catholic School is a great place of learning. We go back to our Mission which says, " we serve a diverse community, modeling Christ through unity, truth, and love, to create a balance of spiritual, academic, and social growth." During our conferences we are having our annual Book Fair in Stack Center. Come find wonderful books for those you love and put them away for Christmas.

ANNUAL MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

Our Parish will celebrate our annual Mass of Remembrance on Wednesday, November 7th at 7:00pm. This Mass has proven to be a very memorable liturgy for us who recall, in a particular way, those who have died in the past twelve months, as well as those who have gone before us in faith and in death.

REMEMBERING OUR DECEASED FRIENDS AND FAMILY

The envelopes for All Saints and All Souls will be placed on the altar for the month of November for those wishing to remember their loved ones.

You may bring a picture of your loved one to be placed on a table before the Blessed Virgin Mary in the Church and it will remain there through the month of November. Please put your name and contact on the back of the photo.

Our Book of Remembrance also provides an opportunity to record the names of deceased loved ones to be lifted up in prayer during the month of November.

ICF MINESTRONE SOUP DINNER

Come join the ICF for our Soup (Minestrone by Lisa) and Salad dinner on November 8th. Doors open at 6:00pm, dinner is served at 6:30pm. In the spirit of Thanksgiving, this is also the time of the year that we collect nonperishable items for St. Vincent de Paul society to share with the less fortunate. Please help us continue this good work by supporting the collection for CCHD.

LITURGY OF THE WORD NEEDS YOUR HELP!

Many thanks to those who answered the call to assist with Children's Liturgy of the Word! We are still in need of just 2 more catechists for children ages 7 to 10 at the 9:30am Mass. Catechists help the children explore the meaning of the Gospel through activity & discussion. Volunteers facilitate the lessons each week & assist with supervision of the children. It's a great opportunity for adults & middle/high school youth to help these eager youngsters apply the Word of the Lord to their everyday life. Please consider joining the wonderful group of volunteers who support this ministry. For more info or to get involved, email Jackie Cruz at: jcruz@olgcv.org or contact the Parish Office at 510-582-9266.
