

Easter Message

We were heartbroken to watch the Cathedral of Norte Dame burn in Paris this last week. Sadness and darkness filled the world as this Church that raised hearts to God was being devoured by fire. Only 1.8% of the French population practice the Catholic Faith and this tragedy of the fire leads us to question will the faith survive? People of faith and vision for generations worked to build the Notre Dame Cathedral. It was a symbol of hope for 850 years. This Easter we may ask where is our faith and hope? Most of the disciples thought the story was over with the death of Jesus. Even with the announcements of the Resurrection by those who encountered him some of the disciples still would not believe. We gather today to affirm that He is alive. He enlightens us today with his Word and Real Presence which we can encounter in the Sacraments. "The Light of Christ" – "Thanks be to God". These are the first words proclaimed at the beginning of the Easter Vigil Mass in every Catholic church throughout the world. In darkness, the large Easter candle is carried through the church, until everyone stands with a lighted candle in their hand, as the Easter proclamation is sung. These moments are solemn and joyful at the same time. The lighted candle reminds us of our baptism and how Christ lights the way for us in our life. The message given is one of hope and of new life, and the message is for all of humanity. Christ is risen. Christ has conquered death and we in turn will rise with Him to new life and glory for He is our light!

This message has been proclaimed for over two thousand years in our churches and in our homes. Yet we see that even though the message is of good news, filled with hope and joy, there seems to be little hope and joy in our world today. Even when Jesus walked on this earth, there was little hope and joy surrounding him and his disciples. So how important is this message of Easter for us today?

If there is one thing that Jesus brings to us in our everyday lives, it is a message of hope and compassion, with our eyes fixed on future glory. Easter is about this for each of us, and even though our lives may be complicated and difficult to manage, the message of Easter is that Jesus will never abandon us, but will accompany us on our journey to assist us especially in difficult times. We must know Jesus in our lives for hope of Resurrection to give us strength and direction. When we know him we can sing songs of faith with the youth of Paris as they watched their beloved Cathedral burn. He is alive and that can never be destroyed. Our Lady and the Saints are interceding for us in this valley of tears and ready to help us become Saints and to rise to everlasting glory with Him.

Gospel for Second Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy) (April 28th)

John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

HELPING HANDS MINISTRY

As many of you know, OLG has a wonderful ministry called "Helping Hands", started by Dianne Fisher many years ago. We help families who have lost a loved one and whom we assist with making and serving food to their family and friends after the Funeral Mass. If you would like to periodically assist us by making food for these gatherings (each entrée, salad or dessert is enough for 10 people), please contact Carmel Ledyard (510-274-5627) or Margaret McKean (510-340-1871) or you may leave your name and number in the Parish Office. Thank you and God Bless!

DEVOTIONAL CANDLES

Candles for our candle stand are available for purchase in the Parish Office or in the Sacristy after Mass on Sundays. The candles will burn for 5 days. The cost per candle is $4.00. The glass globes in the candle stand must be left in the church.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL'S SOUP & SANDWICH MEALS

As of May 1st 2019, St. Vincent de Paul will no longer be providing Soup and Sandwich Meals at Our Lady of Grace Church. In order to better serve our neighbors in need, we will be partnering with the HOPE Project Mobile run by ABODE Services. They have started to offer free medical services 1x/week at the First Presbyterian Church on Grove & Redwood Road. We will be handing out lunches in that location on Thursdays from 10-11:00am beginning May 2nd.
