

Beatification of Fr. Michael McGivney, Founder of the Knights of Columbus

Fr. Michael McGivney, the founder of the Knights of Columbus, will be beatified during a special Mass October 31st at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Hartford.

On May 27th, the Vatican announced that Pope Francis, who met with the board of directors of the Knights of Columbus in February, had signed the decree recognizing a miracle through the intercession of McGivney, clearing the way for his beatification. Once he is beatified, he will be given the title "Blessed."

The miracle recognized by the Vatican occurred in 2015 and involved an U.S. baby, still in utero, with a life-threatening condition that, under most circumstances, could have led to an abortion.

That baby, Mikey Schachle, is now 5. His parents, Dan and Michelle Schachle, of Dickson, Tennessee, prayed to McGivney to intercede with God to save their son, still in his mother's womb, who was given no hope of surviving a life-threatening case of fetal hydrops.

Fr. McGivney originally started the Knights as a service organization to help widows and orphans. At the time, McGivney was an assistant pastor at St. Mary's Parish. He is buried in New Haven.

The fraternal order for Catholic men has become the largest lay Catholic organization in the world with 2 million members and sponsors a wide range of educational, charitable and religious activities.

McGivney, who will be the first American parish priest to be beatified and has long been a hero of working-class Catholics, can be viewed as a martyr of a pandemic. When he died of pneumonia complications at age 38 in 1890, it was during an outbreak of influenza known as the Russian flu in Thomaston, Connecticut. Some recent evidence, according to the Knights, indicates the outbreak may have been the result of a coronavirus.

I am proud of being a Knight of Columbus and I invite the men of our community to join this fraternal organization. I ask the intercession of Fr. McGivney for all children in danger of abortion. I ask his prayers for all those affected by the Coronavirus.

In honor of the beatification, we're offering FREE online membership for any Knight who joins now through the end of the year. Know a Catholic man who might be interested? Invite them to visit kofc.org/join and use promo code MCGIVNEY2020.

Father Patrick Peyton Was a Knight of Columbus

Known as the "Rosary Priest," Father Peyton was the founder of the Family Rosary Crusade and Family Theater Productions, and now he is the subject of a new film called Pray: The Story of Patrick Peyton.

The Catholic priest produced more than 800 radio shows and 83 TV specials that featured stars like Frank Sinatra, James Dean, Ronald Reagan, Jimmy Stewart and others. He would end every show with the motto he popularized: "The family that prays together, stays together."

Father Peyton was declared Venerable by Pope Francis on Dec. 18, 2017.

Re-Opening Plans At OLG

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The restrictions for coronavirus are beginning to be lifted. As restrictions are being lifted, we will adapt to the new protocols and begin to have indoor options for Mass. Next week, I will give a plan to the community once we hear from the Diocese. May we continue our prayers for protection and for the end of the virus.

In America, The National Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help at Champion, WI covers the peace-filled holy ground deemed 'worthy of belief' by authority of the Catholic Church, that Mary, the mother of Jesus, appeared. Identifying herself as 'The Queen of Heaven who prays for the conversion of sinners,' Mary appeared in October 10, 1859 to a Belgian immigrant woman, Adele Brise, on the grounds of Champion Shrine in Wisconsin.

Our Lady of Good Help, pray for us.

Peace,
Fr. Tom
