Most Holy Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is also known as the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, which translates from Latin to "Body of Christ." This feast originated in France in the mid-thirteenth century and was extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. This feast is celebrated on the Thursday following the Trinity Sunday or, as in the USA, on the Sunday following that feast. This feast calls us to focus on two manifestations of the Body of Christ, the Holy Eucharist and the Church. The primary purpose of this feast is to focus our attention on the Eucharist. The opening prayer at Mass calls our attention to Jesus' suffering and death and our worship of Him, especially in the Eucharist.

At every Mass our attention is called to the Eucharist and the Real Presence of Christ in it. The secondary focus of this feast is upon the Body of Christ as it is present in the Church. The Church is called the Body of Christ because of the intimate communion which Jesus shares with his disciples. He expresses this in the gospels by using the metaphor of a body in which He is the head. This image helps keep in focus both the unity and the diversity of the Church.

The Feast of Corpus Christi is commonly used as an opportunity for public Eucharistic processions, which serves as a sign of common faith and adoration. Our worship of Jesus in His Body and Blood calls us to offer to God our Father a pledge of undivided love and an offering of ourselves to the service of others. (CNS)

We welcome today our First Communion Children as we begin to have Communion again at Mass. Please pray for our Children listed in our Bulletin that the Lord may touch them in a special way with His real presence.

Prayer to St. Joseph for Fathers Day

*St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary,
you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty.
You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands.*

*Kindly protect all the fathers who trustingly come to you.
You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes.
They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labor and weariness.*

But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother.

*Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone.
Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done.*

-St. John XXIII

We have a gift for our Fathers who come to the Church today, there will be blessed Medals of St. Joseph or St. Anthony for them to have as a protector and intercessor.

Religious Freedom Week: June 23rd- Respect for Houses of Worship

Pray that people of all faiths would be free to worship without fear of attacks and harassment. May our freedom to worship be restored so we can seek the help of God in these troubled times.

Reflect - Houses of worship provide spaces for people to step back, often with fellow believers, and pray. The disturbing rise in attacks on these places is an attack on religious freedom. Gunmen in churches, synagogues, and mosques terrorize faith communities. In Europe and North America, churches have been desecrated. Priests all over the world have been killed, even while celebrating liturgies. The problem is not limited to attacks on Christians. Over 50 people were murdered in two mosques in New Zealand, while there have been several attacks on synagogues here in the U.S. in recent years. Mosques and synagogues have been vandalized, while there has been a rise in attacks on Jews and Muslims who are simply going about their daily life. These kinds of attacks are assaults on the image of God and cannot be tolerated. Recently a Church in Washington was set on fire by rioters. Churches in our Diocese have been vandalized in the past.

Act - First, take time during this week, if possible, to pray a decade of the rosary, fast from a meal, or spend time before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, offering up your act as a sacrifice in reparation for sins against human dignity. Then, support increased funding for the FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant Program. This program provides grants to nonprofits, including houses of worship, to improve security. While we should hope, pray, and work for a country where people can worship without fear, we can also take practical steps to protect churches, mosques, and synagogues.

Peace,
Fr. Tom

We can be rightly proud of the many accomplishments of this year's graduation class-it is a clear indication of the talents of our students and of the commitment and support they received from family and teachers along the way. We wish them well and we offer profound thanks to our school's wonderful principal, faculty and staff who have done so much to prepare them for this new adventure!

PRAYER TO OVERCOME RACISM

Mary, friend and mother to all,
 through your Son, God has found a way
 to unite himself to every human being,
 called to be one people,
 sisters and brothers to each other.
 We ask for your help in calling on
 your Son,
 seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect
 one another.
 We ask for your help in obtaining from
 your Son
 the grace we need to overcome the evil
 of racism
 and to build a just society.
 We ask for your help in following your Son,
 so that prejudice and animosity
 will no longer infect our minds or hearts
 but will be replaced with a love
 that respects
 the dignity of each person.
 Mother of the Church,
 the Spirit of your Son Jesus
 warms our hearts:
 pray for us.
 Amen.

ORACION PARA SUPERAR EL RACISMO

María, amiga y madre de todos,
 a través de tu Hijo Dios ha encontrado
 un camino para unirse a todos los
 seres humanos,
 llamados a ser un solo pueblo,
 hermanas y hermanos entre sí.
 Pedimos tu ayuda al recurrir a tu Hijo,
 buscando el perdón por las veces
 en que hemos fallado en amarnos
 y respetarnos.
 Pedimos tu ayuda para obtener de
 tu Hijo
 la gracia que necesitamos para vencer
 el mal del racismo y construir una sociedad justa.
 Pedimos tu ayuda para seguir a tu Hijo,
 para que el prejuicio y la animosidad
 no infecten ya nuestras mentes
 o corazones
 sino que sean reemplazados por el amor que respeta la dignidad de cada persona.
 Madre de la Iglesia,
 el Espíritu de tu Hijo Jesús
 alienta nuestros corazones:
 Ruega por nosotros.
 Amén.

PAX CHRISTI QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"The gospel's advice to turn the other cheek to an unjust aggressor, far from being passivity and cowardice, is evidence of great moral strength that can leave an aggressor morally defeated and humiliated."
