

Pentecost and Confirmation

We are blessed to welcome Most Reverend Michael J. Barber SJ to celebrate Confirmation at our 11:00am Mass this weekend. May we pray on this Pentecost weekend for an outpouring on all of our Confirmandi. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth. O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

Prayer for the Victims of the School Shooting in Uvalde

O God, when your Son was lifted high on the Cross, his Mother stood close by and shared his suffering.

Grant that your Church, participating with the Virgin Mary in the Passion of Christ, may share also in the sufferings of those mothers, fathers, family members and communities who mourn the innocents who have died in such senseless violence.

Grant that, as they share in the suffering of Christ, they may also share in his consolation and his glory.
Amen

Feast of Our Lady of Grace – June 9th

Our Lady of Grace is another of the several titles by which Augustinians have traditionally venerated the Blessed Virgin. In fact it is the oldest among these. From the moment that she received the angel’s greeting and gave her consent to God’s invitation to become the mother of the Word made flesh, Mary became the bearer of Grace in this world.

This title of ‘Our Lady of Grace’ is the oldest with which the Order has shown veneration to Mary. The General Chapter of 1284 prescribed the daily recitation or chant of the ‘Benedicta Tu’ precisely in honor of Our Lady of Grace. The antiphon ‘Ave Regina Caelorum’, also dating back to the 13th Century, is in honor of this same title as well. A confraternity with the title ‘Lady of Grace’ was established at least as early as 1401 in Augustinian friaries of Spain and Portugal and, over the subsequent one hundred years, had extended widely throughout the Order. New friaries under this title began to be established in Italy and Latin America. In 1807 Pope Pius VII, at the request of Venerable Joseph Menochio, Papal Sacristan and Confessor to the Pope, granted the Order the right to celebrate this Feast on June 1st (or June 9th in some places). The Virgin Mary, greeted by the angel as ‘full of grace’ became, from that moment, the Mother of Grace. As Mother of the one and only Mediator Jesus, she is Mother of the Author of Grace and dispenser of Grace.

Our Lady of Grace, pray for us!

Peace & Love,
Fr. Tom

Gospel For The Most Holy Trinity (June 12th)

John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It has been a wonderful month of Our Blessed Mother. We honored Mary at the May Crowning liturgy with one of the eighth graders, Aline Doan, crowning Mary. The second graders formed an honor procession as they had just received their First Holy Communion the Saturday before. It was truly a special occasion and we thank all the parents and teachers who helped to prepare the students for both events.

May was filled with wonderful excursions for our students. They are heading off to Crab Cove, Great America, the California Academy of Sciences, and of course our very own PE Field Day. There always is excitement around any event and we are happy to pursue learning in various ways.

We want to say good-bye to Mrs. Debbie Russell. She has been with Our Lady of Grace Catholic School as a parent, teacher's assistant, bookkeeper as well as office manager. She has served here for 28 years and is officially retiring. Please drop her a note of gratitude to the Parish Office before she leaves in June.

Also leaving the Our Lady of Grace Catholic School community is Mrs. Sanchez, who has been a parent volunteer, room mother, and secretary. Other teachers leaving are Mrs. Britt, Ms. Kirkland, Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Danek and Ms. Bedolla. They are going off to pursue other paths. We thank them for their service and dedication to Catholic education especially here at OLG.

I too, am leaving. As an interim principal, this year has been filled with joy, unity, love and truth. The CORE values. Along the way, we have all survived more of the Covid issues, the restrictions with masks, etc. Our students have grown and are working to be loving Catholic/Christians. It has been a pleasure serving here at OLG and I thank the parishioners, School Board, parents, teachers and staff for all their support. Thank you.

-Kathy Gannon-Briggs

MAXIMILIAN KOLBE QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“There is the essence of love (not sentiment, notwithstanding that it is also beautiful), which has to transform us into God through the Immaculata. This is the essence of love that has to be kindled in us, and through us, inflame the world. and, destroy all evil in it. It is the fire of which the Savior said, “I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing.”

OLG’S 75TH ANNIVERSARY
A Memory of Our History

With great joy, the school opened with the first four grades in 1955 (two years before the new church). A new grade was added each year until there were eight grades. In 1979 a Kindergarten class was added. The Carmelite Sisters of Charity came from Spain to teach the classes with great dedication. Their convent was built in 1956 and it is currently called Casa Kolbe, home of our priests. The former rectory is not the site of the Parish Office.
