Mission Statement

We, the Catholic community of Our Lady of Grace, endeavor to live our faith grounded in Jesus Christ, celebrating His presence in Word, Sacrament and shared experiences.

Brothers and Sisters in the Lord,

Today, Pope Leo XIV canonized Blessed Carlo Acutis and Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, now Saint Carlo Acutis and Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati in a single Canonization Celebration.

Saint Carlo Acutis, a teenager, was known for his devotion to the Eucharist and for having created an online exhibition of Eucharistic miracles. He was born in 1991 and raised in Milan, Italy. Saint Carlo Acutis used his tech skills to evangelize and was noted for his joyful faith and compassion for others before dying of leukemia in 2006 at age 15.

Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati was born in 1901 into a prominent family in Turin, Italy. He was admired for his deep spirituality, love for the poor and enthusiasm for life. He excelled in mountain climbing and had complete faith in God. He served the sick through the St. Vincent de Paul Society. He dedicated himself to helping the poor and supporting the church's social teaching. He died at age 24 after contracting polio, possibly from one of the people he assisted.

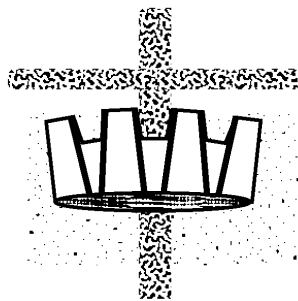

These two young men will be the first saints proclaimed by Pope Leo XIV. In light of the Jubilee of Youth that most recently took place in Rome and the Canonizations of Saint Carlo Acutis, 15 years of age, and Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati, 24 years of age, which took place today, I invite us to reflect upon some highlights from the Jubilee of Youth and then share them with the younger members of your family and among our friends.

During the Jubilee of Youth, Pope Leo XIV said "Only genuine relationships and stable connections can build good lives." He urged more than one million young people to seek authentic relationships rooted in Christ rather than fleeting online connections. He highlighted the importance of faith and true friendship, and he called on youth to make courageous choices. He also invited young people to pray to remain friends with Jesus and be "a companion on the journey." Pope Leo acknowledged the potential of the internet and social media as an extraordinary opportunity for dialogue but warned that these tools are misleading when they are controlled by commercialism and interests that fragment our relationships.

Concerning true friendship and a love capable of giving hope, Pope Leo XIV encouraged the youth to find the one who was already looking for them, Jesus Christ, following the one who had always been their friend." Our youth need to .... remember they were chosen by God, Pope Leo XIV said "it is Jesus in fact that you seek when you dream of happiness; he is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you." A 20-year-old from the United States, asked Pope Leo XIV how to truly encounter the Risen Lord in our lives and be sure of his presence even in the midst of trials and uncertainties. Pope Leo XIV answered....study, work and love according to the example of Jesus, the good Teacher who always walks beside us."

Each of us, then, can be and truly are saints in the making.

The Exaltation of the Holy Cross (September 14th)

John 3:13-17

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "No one has gone up to heaven except the one who has come down from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.
