Mission Statement

We, the Catholic community of Our Lady of Grace, endeavor to live our faith grounded in Jesus Christ, celebrating His presence in Word, Sacrament and shared experiences.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord,

The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

The one symbol most often identified with Jesus and his Church is the cross. This Sunday, September 14th, we celebrate The Feast of The Exaltation of the Holy Cross. For many, the cross is seen as a sign of suffering, but by Christ's love shown in the Paschal Mystery, the cross has become for us a sign of triumph and victory, the sign of God, who is love itself.

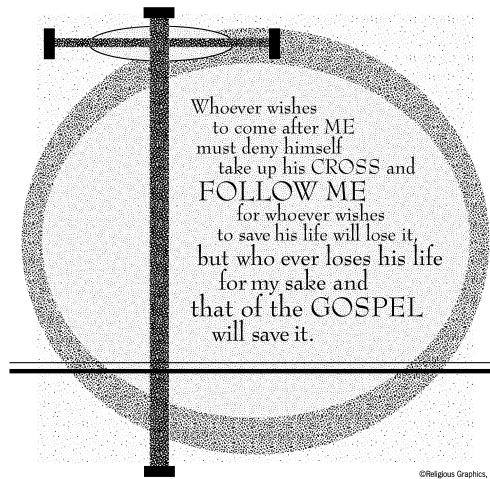

We often make the Sign of the Cross over ourselves. We make it before prayer to help fix our minds and hearts on God. We make it after prayer, hoping to stay close to God. At Baptism, the celebrant, parents, and godparents make the sign on the forehead of the baptized as a visible sign that they have been claimed by Christ. So, please look to the cross often. Make the Sign of the Cross reverently.

As you make the sign of the cross keep in mind that we bring our whole selves to God—our minds, souls, bodies, wills, thoughts, hearts—everything we are and will become. Entrust yourself to the Lord who suffered and died upon the cross for us and our salvation.

And finally, looking at the cross, let us respond to the invitation "Come, let us worship." Looking to the cross of Our Lord Jesus Christ let us hear the echoing of these words...

"Bless us who find salvation in the cross of Christ. May we always recognize His glory. We ask this through Christ, crucified and exalted, who is Lord forever and ever. Amen."

-Fr. Raphael

The Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time (September 21st)

Luke 16:1-13

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.' The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.' He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. "For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."
